Talked to Jim Hyde, Bureau of the Budget, concerning clearance for the proposed letter from the DCI to Congressman Howard Smith on H. R. 12534 concerning establishment of a Joint Committee for Foreign Intelligence. Upon indicating that the letter did not vary in its approach to this problem from previous replies which had been coordinated with the Bureau of the Budget, Mr. Hyde saw no objection to our forwarding the letter. (Subsequently the letter was delivered by hand to Congressman Howard Smith's office on 29 May 1958.)
